

Empowering Youth and Community through Engaged Art Instructor Training Program 3-Day workshop		EDMONTON Sept 28-30, 2010 WINNIPEG Oct 13-15, 2010 Cost $990.00 (3 or more $900.00 each) for First Nation, Inuit, & Métis Organizations
Day 1- Arts as Leadership Tools <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Art for Non-artists • Everyone is an artist • Exploring inner power through images and symbols • Collage work for transformation • Art in the process of expression and communication • Strengthening culture through the Arts 	Day 2 - Creativity and Expression <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Learning to see, question and search for change • Communication through images, symbols and words • Pedagogy and power of Poster making • Art in the Community • The power of Engaged Art in community development and social participation • Development of Teamwork in Art Projects • Photography • Learning to see through different lenses 	Day 3 – Developing Community Programs <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Phototherapy and Photography for the development of perception, acceptance and expression • Digital Story telling • Photovoice projects, what are they, and how to create them.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Participants will learn how to create Art Projects that will to benefit self-esteem and propel teamwork, community development and social participation. • Will understand the basic principles of Engaged Art projects and different ways to develop programs for schools and community centers. • Will experience different ways by which Art can promote wellbeing, develop multiple intelligences, critical thinking and problem solving. • Main concentration is placed on exploring strategies to generate and sustain youth programs in the community, and empower the youth. • Different approaches for leadership development will be demonstrated and practiced during the workshop. EARLY PAYMENT (15 DAYS BEFORE) ADDITIONAL 10% DISCOUNT
"I enjoyed the depth and the atmosphere the facilitator painted us while learning an expressive way to teach." Amanda Mclean Fairford, MB		"I received more than my money's worth. Wish and hope this for every person, community, child , youth." Doreen Pasap White Bear Sk
CALL US, FAX US or REGISTER ON LINE Tel: 1.888.445.3046 Fax 1.866.636.7022 Email: info@believeinouryouth.com		216-1581-H Hillside Ave., Victoria BC V8T 2C1 GO TO www.believeinouryouth.com

Empowering Youth and Community through Engaged Art Instructor Training Program (3-Day Workshop)

EDMONTON Sept. 28-30, 2010 WINNIPEG Oct 13-15, 2010

Cost $990.00 (3 or more $900.00 each)

EARLY PAYMENT (15 DAYS BEFORE) ADDITIONAL 10% DISCOUNT
for First Nation, Inuit, Métis and Urban Aboriginal Organizations,

Organization: _____

Title _____

Name _____

Address: _____

City: _____ Postal Code _____

Phone: _____ Fax: _____

Name 1: _____

Name 2: _____

Name 3: _____

Email Address: _____

*More than 3 names please fax an additional sheet with the names.

PLEASE FAX THIS REGISTRATION to 1-866-636-7022 or Go To www.believeinyouth.com and REGISTER ON LINE

216-1581-H Hillside Ave. Victoria BC V8T 2C1

Tel: 1.888.445.3046 Fax 1.866.636.7022

Email: info@believeinyouth.com

"I enjoyed the depth and the atmosphere the facilitator painted us while learning an expressive way to teach." Amanda Mclean Fairford, MB

"I received more than my money's worth. Wish and hope this for every person, community, child, youth." Doreen Pasap White Bear Sk

- Participants will learn how to create Art Projects that will benefit self-esteem and propel teamwork, community development and social participation.
- Will understand the basic principles of Engaged Art projects and different ways to develop programs for schools and community centers.
- Will experience different ways by which Art can promote wellbeing, develop multiple intelligences, critical thinking and problem solving.
- Main concentration is placed on exploring strategies to generate and sustain youth programs in the community, and empower the youth.
- Different approaches for leadership development will be demonstrated and practiced during the workshop.